McClure Resigns CIA Post for New Job

Wilburn L. McClure Jr., son-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Locky, 1911 Millersville Pike, has resigned from the Central Intelligence Agency to take a position with a Washington D. C. firm.

McClure, who served as budget officer with the CIA, will be associated with Professional Business Management Inc. as a consultant. The company specializes in management consultant services to physicians and dentists.
